INFORMED CONSENT

CONFIDENTIALITY STATEMENT:

1. I abide by and respect the AAMFT ethical code of confidentiality. This means that I cannot and will not tell anyone else what you have told me, or even that you are in therapy with me, without your written permission. You may give written consent for me to share information with whomever you choose, and you can change your mind and revoke that permission at any time.
2. The following are the legal exceptions to your right to confidentiality. I will inform you if at any time I feel it is necessary to put these into effect.
 - If I have good reason to believe that you will harm another person, I must attempt to inform that person and warn them of your intentions. I must also inform the police and ask them to protect that person.
 - If I have good reason to believe that you or someone else is abusing/neglecting a child or vulnerable adult, I must inform CPS or Social Services within 72 hours. This includes physical violence that a child bears witness to.
 - If I believe that you are in imminent danger of harming yourself, I may legally break confidentiality and contact the police or crisis team. However, whenever possible, I would explore all other options with you before taking this step. In any of these situations, I would reveal only the information necessary to protect you or the person in danger. I would not tell everything you have told me.
 - If you become involved in a court case or proceeding, a judge or court may require that I provide information or testify.
 - I may sometimes consult with another professional about your treatment. All counselors are required by professional ethics to keep your information confidential. These case consultations are helpful to both you and me in determining that I am providing you with the best treatment possible.
 - When I treat children under the age of 12, I cannot guarantee confidentiality. Parents of young children have the right to remain informed about treatment. As children grow more able to understand and choose, their right to confidentiality increases. Therefore, for children between the ages of 12 and 18, most of the details of our work together will be kept confidential. However, parents and guardians do have the right to general information, such as how their child's therapy is going. The same legal exceptions to confidentiality also apply.
 - If you and your partner decide to have individual sessions as part of your couples therapy, what we discuss in those individual sessions will most likely be discussed in your joint sessions. I will not be a part of keeping secrets between partners in couples therapy. If you do not wish to work on your concerns together, I suggest you see separate counselors for individual therapy.

FINANCIAL AGREEMENT:

The fee for a 45-50 minute session is $150.00 payable at the time of treatment. I accept credit cards (processing fee of $5 per transaction will be added for cc), cash and checks. You will need to pay your session fee in full at the time of service.

_____ I agree to pay the fee of $150.00 per 45-50 minute session.
(+$5 cc processing fee)

Fees are periodically reviewed and subject to change. However, you will receive a 30-day notice of any fee increase.

FINANCIAL POLICY:

1. You are responsible for full payment of all services.

TELEPHONE CALLS, REPORTS AND LEGAL REPRESENTATION:

1. I prefer to see and talk with you in person at our scheduled session time. However, I am aware that telephone calls or text messaging are necessary at times. If I am unable to answer, please leave a message, including your phone number, and I will return your call as soon as possible. All text or email messages are subject to be included with client file. Please be aware that text messaging, email and telephone are NOT confidential means of communication
2. If you request that I write reports to be sent to schools, employers, lawyers, doctors, courts, Child Protective Services, etc., you will be charged for the time it takes me to write these reports. Court appearances will be billed at $500.00/hour port to port.
3. I am not a legal consultant or representative. I do not do custody evaluations or make recommendations regarding child custody. If you do require these services I will be happy to provide you with referrals.

ENDING THERAPY:

Usually, ending therapy happens naturally and takes place over several weeks in the process of treatment. Should you wish to stop therapy at any time, I ask that you allow yourself and/or your child to have a final session, regardless of the reason for ending. Closure is an essential element in the process of good therapy, which I highly value. If you request, I will refer you to another provider.

EMERGENCIES:

In the event of a psychological emergency, please call 911. You may also call the Suicide Prevention Hotline of Nevada at 1-877-885-HOPE, Montevista Hospital at 702-364-1111, Spring Mountain Treatment Center at 702-873-2400, or Nevada Adult Mental Health at 702-486-8020.

STATEMENT OF UNDERSTANDING:

I have read the enclosed policies and procedures, asked any questions that I needed to, and understand the terms of this consent. I understand my rights and responsibilities as a client and my therapist’s responsibilities to me. I agree to these conditions and consent to treatment.

Informed Consent for Tele-Therapy Services

I hereby consent to engage in distance counseling with my therapist, Mandy Squires, as part of my psychotherapy. I understand that distance counseling includes the practice of health care delivery, diagnosis, consultation, treatment, transfer of medical data, and education using interactive audio, video, or data communications.

I understand that I have the following rights with respect to distance counseling:

I have the right to withhold or withdraw consent at any time without affecting my right to future care or treatment nor risking the loss or withdrawal of any program benefits to which I would otherwise be entitled.

The laws that protect the confidentiality of my medical information also apply to distance counseling. As such, I understand that the information disclosed by me during the course of my therapy is generally confidential. However, there are both mandatory and permissive exceptions to confidentiality, including, but not limited to reporting child, elder, and dependent adult abuse; expressed threats of violence towards an ascertainable victim; and where I make my mental or emotional state an issue in a legal proceeding.

I also understand that the dissemination of any personally identifiable images or information from the telemedicine interaction to researchers or other entities shall not occur without my written consent.

I understand that there are risks and consequences from distance counseling, including, but not limited to, the possibility, despite reasonable efforts on the part of my psychotherapist, that: the transmission of my medical information could be disrupted or distorted by technical failures; the transmission of my medical information could be interrupted by unauthorized persons; and/or the electronic storage of my medical information could be accessed by unauthorized persons. These risks are offset by my therapist's use of a HIPAA-compliant service that is encrypted for video tele-mental health communications.

I understand that if my psychotherapist believes I would be better served by another form of psychotherapeutic services (e.g. face-to-face services, group therapy), I will be referred to a psychotherapist who can provide such services in my area.

I understand that I may benefit from distance counseling, but that results cannot be guaranteed or assured.

Considerations:

It is important to note that there are limitations of distance counseling that can affect the quality of the session(s). These limitations include but are not limited to the following:

I cannot see you, your body language, or your non-verbal reactions to what we are discussing.

Due to technology limitations, I may not hear all of what you are saying and may need to ask you to repeat things.

Technology might fail before or during the counseling session.

Although every effort is made to reduce confidentiality breaches, breaches may occur for various reasons.

To reduce the effect of these limitations, I may ask you to describe how you are feeling, thinking, and/or acting in more detail than I would during a face-to-face session. You may also feel that you need to describe your feelings, thoughts, and/or actions in more detail than you would during a face-to-face session.

I have read and understood the information provided above. I have discussed it with my psychotherapist, and all my questions have been answered to my satisfaction.

Tele-Therapy flat fee of $155 per 45-50 minute session, including late cancellation/missed appointment fee.
